

CardioLog SaaS Extended Tracking API

With the CardioLog SaaS API you can:

- Track visitor actions within the browser such as button and banner clicks, form field data entries and more by implementing some simple JavaScript using the client-side API.
- Send custom events to CardioLog from any application using the server-side API.
- Track visitor actions from non-browser applications, including mobile apps, using the server-side API.