

Usability - Visitor Technology

The Visitor Technology report template displays a series of widgets that describe the types of devices and software your visitors use to access your site. You can hover your cursor over most widgets to display further information.

Usability | Visitor Technology

Widgets

Visits by Device Type

This bar chart displays the total number of visits made by all identified devices during the selected time frame.

Visits by Operating System

This bar chart displays the total number of visits made by all identified operating systems during the selected time frame.

Visits by Browser

This bar chart displays the total number of visits made by all identified web browsers during the selected time frame.

Device Type

This line chart compares the number of visits made by all identified devices over the selected time frame.

Operating System

This line chart compares the number of visits made by all identified operating systems over the selected time frame.

Browser

This line chart compares the number of visits made by all identified browsers over the selected time frame.

Filters

Portal Tree

Use this filter to navigate through your portal and simply check the box next to any page or level to review information for exclusively that selection.

Date

Use the date slider to quickly change the start or end date that you would like review information for. If you'd like to choose a specific date, click either the start or end date and manually select it using the calendar popup.